

Smile While You Scream 2026

Cloudbase Paragliding's

30th Epic Alpine Odyssey

Thirty years of chasing thermals, chasing laughs, chasing that perfect scream-turned-grin moment.

This isn't just another tour—it's your annual date with the sky, the mountains, and pure, unfiltered freedom.

July 11 – August 2, 2026

Three weeks. Three countries. Infinite possibilities.

Dip in for one region, two, or go full send for the whole adventure.

The Alps are calling — answer with wings.

We kick off in the emerald embrace of France (Savoie), where Lake Annecy sparkles below like a liquid jewel and Mont Blanc watches over every launch like an old friend.

Then we chase the Austrian magic in Stubai, where evening glass-offs stretch till late and the Elfer launch feels like your personal runway to the stars.

We finish in the sun-drenched foothills of Italy (Bassano)—Monte Grappa towering, Venice whispering in the distance, and XC dreams waiting on every ridge.

Guided by Jan and Khobi—your personal weather whisperers, site gurus, and chaos tamers—we've dialled in the formula:

- Maximum airtime
- Zero hidden surprises
- A home base that feels like family
- Enough downtime to sip espresso, explore medieval towns, or just stare at the horizon wondering how life got this good

Flexible join-anytime access via train from major airports. Fly when the sky says yes. Rest when your wings (or your grin) need it.

The Regions & Your Ticket to the Sky

Savoie, France – 11th–18th July (7 days)

Garden views of Elfer, super house, late-night evening flights. The valley that turns pilots into poets (and sometimes screamers).

Bassano, Italy – 27th July–2nd August (6 days)

Albergo charm, Monte Grappa switchbacks, four nearby launches begging for XC. Venice day trip? Why not—because why fly over one wonder when you can visit two?

After 29 editions, we've hosted hundreds of dreamers who left as family.

Ready to make 2026 the year you finally answer the call?
